Corporate Management and Administration of Retiree Medical Plan

Retiree Medical Plan Committee – PY 2018

- Reports to Board of Trustees annually
- Purpose
 - Annual review of Plan assets
 - Approve Plan amendments
 - None in 2018
 - Manage appeals process to determine eligibility
 - None in 2018

Plan Overview

- An amount called the Defined Dollar Benefit (DDB) is paid monthly on the retiree's behalf by the Plan to the insurance carrier the retiree has selected
 - Tier A employees hired prior to July 1, 1987 receive 100% of DDB at retirement
 - Tier B employees hired on or after July 1, 1987 receive a percentage of DDB based on years of service at retirement
- The retiree is required to pay the difference between total premium cost and the DDB amount (cost-sharing)
- The eligible survivor of a retiree is entitled to the same DDB level (Tier A or Tier B) as the deceased retiree
- The eligible survivor of an active employee over age 65 and who was eligible for retiree medical is also entitled to the benefit

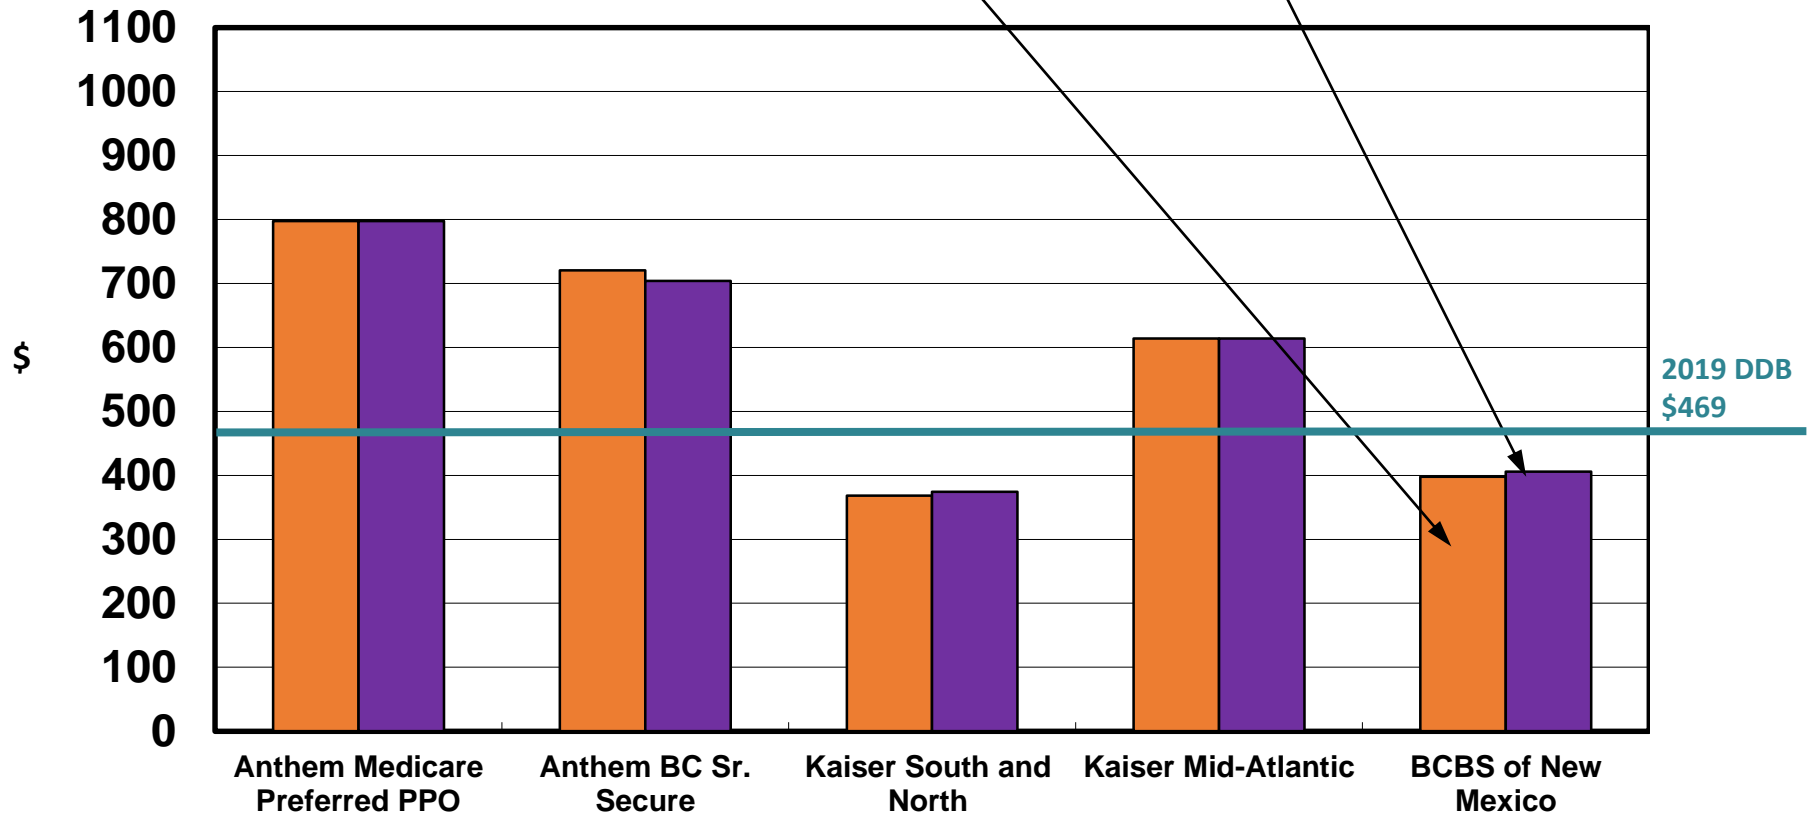

What are the DDB Amounts for Calendar Year 2019?

Category	Monthly DDB

Other Information To Know

- Plan contributions are reimbursable by the customer
- The retiree does not have a vested interest in this benefit
- The company has consistently reserved the right to modify the benefits or terminate the Plan. The assets in the trust can only be used for retiree medical benefits, not other purposes.
- The following items are posted on the Employee Benefits and Retiree websites:
 - Retiree Medical Summary Plan Document
 - Retiree Medical Briefing for retirement planning purposes — Eligibility and 2019 Cost Sharing
 - Actuarial Valuation (Mercer) for September 30, 2018

Anthem Medicare Preferred PPO Plan Overview

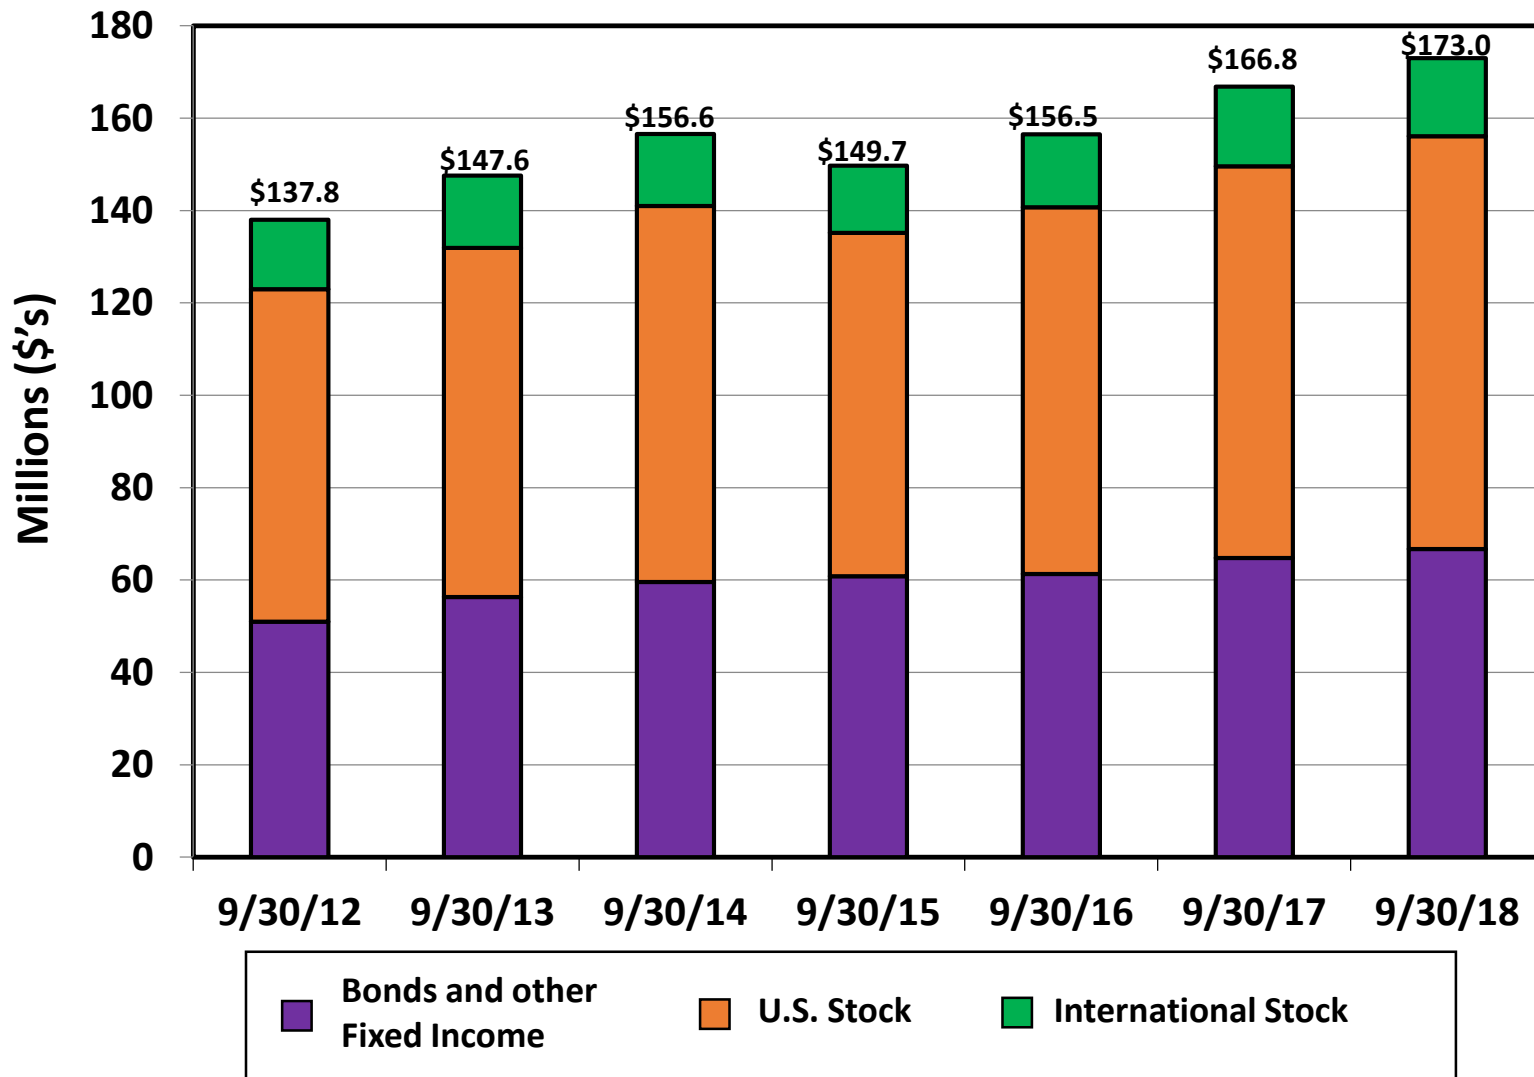

- Medicare Advantage combines Medicare and Anthem coverage
- Premiums decreased and there is no deductible
- Copays apply for most services
- Prescription plan was not changed
- Participants can go to any in network or out of network provider that accepts Medicare and agrees to bill Anthem as primary insurance
- Claims are processed more efficiently because bills go directly to Anthem instead of Medicare
- Access to wellness programs such as Healthways Silver Sneakers Fitness and discounts on programs and nutritional supplements
