

Retirees, How We help

Address healthcare concerns

Your Personal Health Advocate will do the legwork to get you to the right providers and the right answers.

- Find in-network doctors, dentists and hospitals
- Arrange appointments, including second opinions with hard-to-reach specialists
- Answer questions about a health condition, research treatment options

Handle insurance-related issues

We address your questions and help you maximize your benefits.

- Review your employer-provided retiree health benefits
- Help resolve billing and claims issues
- Provide the estimated out-of-pocket costs of common medical procedures in your area.

Guidance with insurance coverage.

We'll walk you through your options.

- Help with insurance choices before you're eligible for Medicare
- Explain Medicare coverage and costs
- Compare various Medicare plan options
- Explain how Medicare coordinates with your employer-provided insurance

Locate care facilities and support, if needed

We do the research to get you the right resources.

- Research local adult day care, assisted living, and long-term care facilities
- Locate in-home care and nursing support resources
- Help facilitate transportation to your medical appointments

Remember, you and your parents and parents-in-law can all use the Health Advocate program!
